Resonance

Calgary | July 19-23 | 2023

Tickets Now On Sale

Be a ChamberFest West Ambassador

ChamberFest West's Ambassadors are among our greatest cheerleaders. Many donate throughout the year, and when ticket sales open, happily purchase an Ambassador Pass too. It's an easy way to support the Festival and bring a friend, and we thank you.

Ambassador Passes are $280 for all five concerts. Ambassadors receive a $55 charitable tax receipt, and an extra ticket to Blue Dress on Wednesday, July 19, at the Bella Concert Hall. We hope you'll use the extra ticket to introduce a friend to our Chamberhood.

Festival Passes are $180 for all five concerts. You won't miss a note!

Individual concerts are $45 each ($15 for students and youth). Mix and match your favourites, or try something new!

Click HERE for detailed information for each concert, including the repertoire and roster of musicians.

We've scheduled early and late concerts at The Bow, to ensure as many people as possible have an opportunity to enjoy this intimate space with a spectacular view of the skyline from the 54th floor garden.

We look forward to seeing you at *Resonance!

Survey WINNERS!

Earlier this year, 170 survey respondents gave CFW valuable guidance for future festival planning. The best news? Ninety-six percent said they plan to attend this year's festival and almost 50 percent of our respondents indicated "nothing would prevent them from attending the 2023 Festival." We expect full houses again this year!

Thanks to everyone who took the time to participate. We truly value your input and will work hard to act on your advice.

Congratulations to the Marcheses and Laura Sugimoto, whose names were drawn at random from the respondents list, and who will receive two tickets to Blue Dress on July 19 at the Bella Concert Hall.

Look for CFW at these upcoming concerts

ChamberFest West volunteers will be at the following events, with ticket brochures and answers to all your questions.

Calgary ProMusica's Master Series 5: Afiara Quartet & Lesley Robertson, Viola

Eckhardt-Gramatté Hall in the University of Calgary's Rozsa Centre.

A dynamic and award-winning ensemble, the Afiara Quartet has been described as “a revelation” (La Presse) with performances balancing “intensity and commitment” and “frequent moments of tenderness” (Montreal Gazette). With strong ties to Calgary, Lesley makes her home at Stanford University where, along with her SLSQ colleagues, she directs the chamber music program at the department of music.

Instrumental Society of Calgary's *Kintsugi

May 14, 2023, at 3:00 p.m.

cSPACE King Edward (1721 29 Ave. SW)

Featuring Diana Cohen (violin), Jesse Morrison (viola), Josué Valdepeñas (cello), Roman Rabinovich (piano)

This program offers a diverse selection of music by lesser known composers, as well as an extraordinary young female composer from New Zealand. Kintsugi is the ancient Japanese art of repairing broken pottery with gold and rather than hiding the damage, Kintsugi celebrates all the cracks or ‘scars’ for the unique history that they represent. This beautiful idea has inspired this work and is an interesting way to explore everything tonal and atonal.
