When the Chamberhood speaks, we listen!

The 2023 Festival survey results are in, and we couldn't be happier. Eighty-six percent of our survey respondents were "very satisfied" with this year's Festival, and 96 percent said they will attend future CFW events and recommend them to a friend.

"The accolades are wonderful," says CFW Board chair Heather Bourne. "We also love reading the candid and constructive feedback in the survey comments. Our Chamberhood audience is engaged, and they have good ideas!"

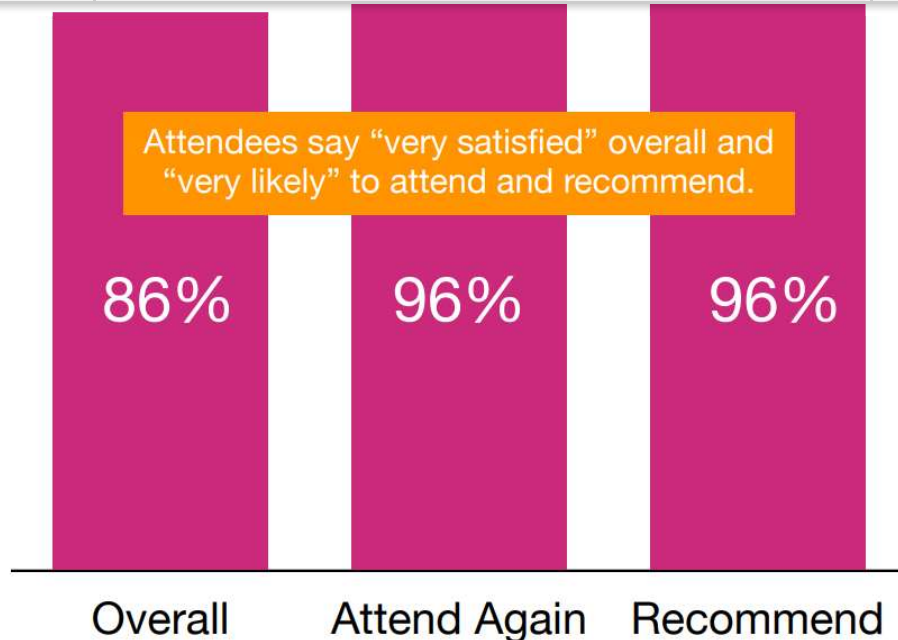

When asked what aspects of the festival they enjoyed the most, comments included the brilliant programming, the virtuosity of the artists, the variety of venues, and the more intimate performances. Be assured, CFW will continue to offer all that in familiar and new ways each year.

Most agreed that the timing and length of ChamberFest West – five days in between the Calgary Stampede and the Calgary Folk Music Festival is the best fit for summer plans.

The ChamberFest West 2023 feedback survey was live from July 19th to August 26th and sent primarily to festival ticket purchasers. Fourteen questions focused on the festival program, venues, and communications, with opportunity for comments.

"Above all, I enjoyed the skill and commitment of the highly accomplished musicians, performing in an informal yet disciplined and engaging way."

Roman Rabinovich in Concert - Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra

Immerse yourself in scintillating orchestral colour in this concert of vibrant works of the 20th century that were composed 80 years apart. Internationally renowned pianist Roman Rabinovich takes the stage with the Calgary Phil in Witold Lutosławski's Piano Concerto, which really has it all — dramatic flair, atmosphere, and excitement! The lush romanticism of Sergei Rachmaninoff's ravishing Second Symphony will sweep you off your feet.

Rachmaninoff Symphony No. 2
